

Disclosure and Barring Service Requests Privacy Notice

Introduction

This privacy notice explains how the Council uses your data to process Disclosure and Barring Service requests.

Who will be using your data?

Nottinghamshire County Council will be the data controller for the data you provide to us.

We may also contract third party organisations to process your data on our behalf.

What personal data do we use?

- Name and Contact Details
- Date of Birth
- Gender
- NI number
- 5 year Address history
- Any previous names
- Passport Number
- Birth Certificate information
- Driving licence details

We also process data about criminal convictions, criminal offences or related safeguarding information.

Why do we use your data?

- For safer recruitment decisions
- For safeguarding in the community
- To prevent and detect crime or fraud
- To confirm your identity

What legal reasons allow us to use your data in this way?

Our legal basis for processing your personal data is that it is necessary to adhere to a contract and to meet our legal obligations.

Our legal basis for processing data about criminal convictions, criminal offences or related security measures is that is necessary for the Council to carry out its obligations relating to employment and safeguarding.

Who may we share your data with or receive it from?

- Disclosure and Barring Service
- The Police
- Employers
- Identity verification services

May personal data be transferred overseas?

The Council may for operational purposes transfer personal data overseas. In these cases, we will ensure that your personal data is protected and there are safeguards for the protection of your rights. Please refer to the County Council's privacy statement for further details.

How long is your data kept for?

This information is held in accordance with the Council's retention schedule – see here.

What will happen if you do not provide or we cannot obtain the data needed?

- We could not process a disclosure request and your opportunity to work would be withdrawn

Does the service make decisions using fully automated processes?

No.

What rights do you have over this use of your data?

- To be informed about how we use your data
- To access a copy of your data that we process
- To have us rectify or correct your data that we process
- To restrict our processing of your personal data
- To object to the use of your data
- To have your personal data erased
- To request that we transfer your information to you or another organisation
- To object to fully automated decision making
- To withdraw your consent (if it the legal reason why we use your data).

Some of these rights are subject to exceptions. Please refer to the County Council's privacy statement part 10 for further details.
